AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT. CANTERBURY HALL. - Both our theaters have closed for the season, but Canterbury will keep open some time longer, and probably all summer. Mr. Lea is warranted in doing this, for he has a cool and comfortable resort, and the excellence of the company he slways engages will not fail to attract full houses. The St. George Sisters, now engaged here, are creating great excitement by their remarkable cabinet performances, a la the Dayenport Brothers. SANFORD'S TROUPE will continue for a few nights more to give their amusing minstrel entertainments at Odd Fellows' Hall. The programme will be changed nightly, and each member of the company seems to endeavor to excel the other in pleasing the audience; and each one succeeds well in his special part.

EXCURSIONS AND PIC-NICS .- At 2 o'clock today the steamer Phenix will leave Seventh street wharf with an excursion party for Glymont, under the auspices of the Young Bachelor's Association.

This afternoon and evening the Magnolia Club will give a pic-nic at Tivoli Park, out Seventh street; and near by, at Washington Park, a similar entertainment will be given by the Star Club, and visitors may expect much enjoyment.

GONZAGA COLLEGE, formerly known under the name of "Washington Seminary," was reopened for the instruction of youth on the 2d day of October, 1848. It is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. The interesting annual commencement exercises took place yesterday at Ford's Theater. At ten o'clock the dramatic association commenced the play entitled the "Idiot Witness;" followed by the melo-drama. "The Somnambulist." Epilogue, Oharles E. Bailey.

The performances throughout were exceedingly interesting, and elicited long and loud applause from the assemblage. The distribution of medals and premiums was anxiously looked for, and at the close of the play, and fine music by the Marine Band, Rev. Daniel Lynch announced the names of the successful competitors, and the Rev Bernardin F. Wiget, president of the Gonzaga College, conferred the honors. For good conduct, untiring application, ready compliance with the rules, gentlemanly deportment, &c., the first medal was awarded to Sam'l H. Wimsatt. Other medals were awarded to Daniel O. Callighan, Geo. N. Sullivan, Emile Lebois, Nathan S. Dustin, Henry Emerich, Wm. P. Brady, John Brady, Elisha F. Riggs, John J. McCarthy, Samuel C. Usher, John W. Kearns, J. Shannon Rowland, Anton Ruppert, Henry Giesking, Wm. Rickets, Wm. B. Browne, D. Carroll Nicholson, Thomas L. Woodward. Henry E. Goodrich and Louis Emmert. Then followed a long list of premiums for proficiency and excellent condact in the respective classes; and about 2 o'clock the exercises were closed, amidst fine feeling and enthusiasm. guilty of larceny.

Wm. Clarke, T. Edward Barry, Robert
Walker, James Davis and John McNulty, a lot of boys, aged from 12 to 16, were found guilty of stealing preserved fruits, and McNulty was sentenced to five days in jail, and the others to three months each. Wm. Henry. David Mason, Cornelius Harris, and Wm. H. Gray were found guilty of pettit larceny, and Mason was sentenced to six months in jail and the others to three months.

This morning, Edward McPhaul, indicted for an attempt to commit arson, was found guilty. Motion made for a new trial.

THE REBEL RAID-Panie Among the Canal Boatmen .- The rebe! raid, and reports of their crossing at different points on the river, has scared the canal boatmen considerably, and their empty boats, which should go up, are huddled together in the canal around the aquequet. The collector cannot even induce them to move around the bend, a mile and a half above Georgetown, in order to make more room, as they seem to dread to meet the rebs even there. There has been no arrivals by canal since yesterday.

DROWNED .- On the 1th instant, as the steamer Phoenix was returning from the excursion to Glymont, Mr. Alexander Earpe, a young man well known in this city, was accidentally drowned. His friends say that he had laid down to sleep outside the rail in front of the wheelhouse, and awaking he turned suddenly, and was seen to fall in the river. He called for help once, and immediately disappeared. Mr. Earpe was a native of Washington, and a tin and sheet-iron worker by trade. He was highly esteemed by his acquaintances.

DIVIDING THE PROFITS .- For sometime past the proprietors of Columbia Garden, corner of 12th street and Ohio avenue, have been missing money from their bar-drawer. Suspecting Joseph Shaefer, their bar-keeper, they watched him, and yesterday Mr. Nathans, one of the proprietors, caught him by placing a marked note in the drawer, and took $18 from him, four of which was claimed by the proprietors. Shaefer was taken to the Second Ward station by officer Voss, and Justice Clayton held him to bail for court.

GRAND LARGENY CASES.—Bridget Feeney was arrested by Officer McColgan for the largeny of various articles from the United States Hotel, amounting to grand larceny. The case was held before Justice Johnson, who committed the prisoner to jail for a hearing. Margaret Fitzgerald was arrested by Officer Crown for being accessory to the robbery of $100 from Edward Fitzgerald. She was sent to jail for a hearing, by Justice Bates.

A DELIGHTFUL EXCURSION IN PROSPECT. On Wednesday next, july 13th, an excursion to Glymont Pavilion, for the benefit of Gorauch M. E. Church, will take place. It will be under the management of the pastor and mem-bers of the church, and all who would visit this delightful resort and enjoy a splendid sail, should make a note of the date of this ex-

THE FINAL SALE OF OIL PAINTINGS .- On to-morrow evening, commencing at 7% o'clock, the fine collection of oil paintings now on exhibition at James U. McGuire & Co.'s auction rooms will be put up and sold to the highest bidders. The collection embraces about 100 really fine pictures, all handsomely framed. Among them we notice particularly a fine interior view of a Dutch Cabarret, a beautiful specimen of the Ostade school, painted on panel, figures carefully drawn and highly fin-ished; Debarkation of Cleopatra, with figures, shipping, buildings, &c.; an excellent copy of one of Claude Lorraine's celebrated pictures, several fine madonnas, together with many other beautiful specimens that cannot fail to please the lover of art. We advise all in want of pictures to attend this final sale, as we understand Mr. Tolman's purpose is to close them out.
